

ST. ANDREW'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Mission: To Reveal God's Love by Nourishing the Community through Worship, Acceptance, and Service.

THE THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

APRIL 14, 2024

10 a.m.

As a sign of hospitality, please wear your nametag into worship and out to coffee hour. Nametags can be returned to their Narthex location, or to the basket at the front office desk. If you don't yet have a nametag, request one at the guestbook.

WE'RE GLAD YOU'RE HERE!

St. Andrew's is an affirming faith community committed to revealing God's love by nourishing one another and our neighbors through worship, acceptance, fellowship, Christian formation, and service programs. There's a place for you here regardless of your age, gender, orientation, affiliation, ethnicity, or any other way you identify.

Wherever you are on your faith journey, we hope you'll choose to explore with us. As we celebrate the dignity of every human being and honor the beautiful mosaic that is the Body of Christ, we proclaim together: God loves you! No exceptions.

New to the Episcopal Church?

- During worship, people will sit, stand, and kneel. Please do what feels most meaningful to you. And, remember, you can't mess this up; God's got us all!
- If you have questions, your pew mates, or ushers and greeters are happy to help.
- You'll find helpful prayers (pp. 810-44) in The Book of Common Prayer (located in the pew holder). Prayer #64 (p. 833) is a great way to enter the sacred space of worship.

What about children?

Families are welcome in all parts of the worship space. To the left of the altar, you'll find rockers, child-size chairs, and supplies for coloring. Sunday School participants will join the congregation at the Peace. You can engage your child by helping them pray with us, imitate the priest's gestures, and sing the hymns. Our Comfort Room is not staffed, but please feel free to slip inside if your little ones need a break.

Please remember the following people in your prayers:

For healing: Stan, John, Marilyn, Maria, Mason, John, Julian, Olivia, Ryan, Morgan, Harry, Christine, Sharon, Karen, Bob, Penny, Debra, Kat & Annalie, Irv, Brete, Geri, Jimm, Dana, Bill, DeAnna, and Brenda J.

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant: God be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Readings (please be seated)

First Reading: Acts 3:12-19

Reader: A reading from Acts.

Peter addressed the people, "You Israelites, why do you wonder at this, or why do you stare at us, as though by our own power or piety we had made him walk? The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, the God of our ancestors has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you handed over and rejected in the presence of Pilate, though he had decided to release him. But you rejected the Holy and Righteous One and asked to have a murderer given to you, and you killed the Author of life, whom God raised from the dead. To this we are witnesses. And by faith in his name, his name itself has made this man strong, whom you see and know; and the faith that is through Jesus has given him this perfect health in the presence of all of you.

"And now, friends, I know that you acted in ignorance, as did also your rulers. In this way God fulfilled what he had foretold through all the prophets, that his Messiah would suffer. Repent therefore, and turn to God so that your sins may be wiped out."

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 4

Reader: As the Psalm is prayed, please join in singing the refrain.

From The Portland Psalter © 2006, Robert A. Hawthorne. Church Publishing Incorporated. All rights reserved. Used by permission.

Refrain

Answer me when I call, O God, defender of my cause; *
you set me free when I am hard-pressed;
have mercy on me and hear my prayer.

"You mortals, how long will you dishonor my glory; *
how long will you worship dumb idols
and run after false gods?"

Know that the LORD does wonders for the faithful; *
when I call upon the LORD, he will hear me.

Refrain

Tremble, then, and do not sin; *
speak to your heart in silence upon your bed.

Offer the appointed sacrifices *
and put your trust in the LORD.

Many are saying, "Oh, that we might see better times!" *
Lift up the light of your countenance upon us, O LORD.

Refrain

You have put gladness in my heart, *
more than when grain and wine and oil increase.

I lie down in peace; at once I fall asleep; *
for only you, LORD, make me dwell in safety.

Refrain

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-7

Reader: A reading from 1 John.

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Everyone who commits sin is guilty of lawlessness; sin is lawlessness. You know that he was revealed to take away sins, and in him there is no sin. No one who abides in him sins; no one who sins has either seen him or known him. Little children, let no one deceive you. Everyone who does what is right is righteous, just as he is righteous.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Holy Gospel: Luke 24:36b-48

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus himself stood among the disciples and said to them, "Peace be with you." They were startled and terrified, and thought that they were seeing a ghost. He said to them, "Why are you frightened, and why do doubts arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet; see that it is I myself. Touch me and see; for a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see that I have." And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While in their joy they were disbelieving and still wondering, he said to them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of broiled fish, and he took it and ate in their presence.

Then he said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you—that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, "Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things."

Deacon: The Gospel of the Savior.

All: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Celebrant continues

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love.

Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people. Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation.

Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said:

"Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your children, that with St. Andrew, and all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Celebrant: As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray

All: Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.

Good Listeners Needed

As soon as possible!

The Commission on Ministry, which oversees the ordination process for priests and deacons in our diocese, is looking for people willing to serve as conveners of Parish Discernment Committees (PDC). The PDC's would most often be for Inquirers (people who are discerning a call to ordination) from other congregations. After a 3-1/2 hour Zoom training, conveners coordinate meeting times, as well as facilitate the process of intentional discernment. If you're interested, please contact Mother Brenda at rector@standrewsepiscopal.org to learn more.
